1 I. INTRODUCTION

2 Plaintiff Eric Harrold (“Plaintiff”) respectfully submits this memorandum in support of the 3 unopposed motion for preliminary approval of the proposed class action settlement with Defendant 4 Spartan Education Group, LLC (“Defendant”), and seeks entry of an order: (1) preliminarily approving 5 the proposed settlement of this class action with Defendant; (2) for settlement purposes only, 6 conditionally certifying the following Class: “all individuals who were employed by Defendant in 7 California and classified as a non-exempt employee at any time during the Class Period, excluding 8 those employees who signed severance agreements”, which is January 19, 2019 through January 5, 9 2024; (3) provisionally appointing Plaintiff as the representatives of the Class; (4) provisionally 10 appointing Norman B. Blumenthal, Kyle R. Nordrehaug, Aparajit Bhowmik, Nicholas J. De Blouw, 11 Jeffrey S. Herman, Sergio J. Puche, and Trevor G. Moran of Blumenthal Nordrehaug Bhowmik De 12 Blouw LLP as Class Counsel for the Class; (5) approving the form and method for providing class-wide 13 notice; (6) directing that notice of the proposed settlement be given to the class; (7) appointing Apex 14 Class Action Administration as Administrator, and (8) scheduling a final approval hearing for the 15 proposed date of July 30, 2024 to consider Plaintiff’s motion for final approval of the settlement and 16 for approval of attorneys' fees and litigation expenses. Plaintiff and Defendant (collectively the 17 “Parties”) have reached a full and final settlement of the above-captioned action, which is embodied 18 in the Class Action and PAGA Settlement Agreement (“Agreement”) filed concurrently with the Court.<sup>1</sup> 19 A copy of the fully executed Agreement is attached as Exhibit #1 to the Declaration of Kyle 20 Nordrehaug (“Decl. Nordrehaug”), served and filed herewith. The form of the Agreement is based 21 upon the Los Angeles County Superior Court model form for a class and PAGA settlement.<sup>2</sup>

22 As consideration for this Settlement, the Gross Settlement Amount is Four Hundred Thousand 23 Dollars ($400,000) (the “Gross Settlement Amount”) to be paid by Defendant, as set forth in the 24 Agreement. The Gross Settlement Amount will settle all issues pending in the Action between the 25 _____

26 <sup>1</sup> Capitalized terms shall have the same meaning as defined in the Agreement.

27 <sup>2</sup> Plaintiff has endeavored to comply with this Court’s CMO for Class Actions issued in other 28 actions, however, there is some confusion in this case because there was no Class CMO, only a PAGA CMO issued.

1 Parties and will be made in full and final settlement of the Released Class Claims in exchange for the 2 payments to Participating Class Members from the Net Settlement Amount, and includes (a) the costs
3 of administration of the settlement, (b) all attorneys' fees and costs, (c) Class Representative Service
4 Payments, and (d) the PAGA Penalties allocated to the LWDA and the Allegedly Aggrieved
5 Employees. The Settlement is all-in with no reversion to Defendant and no need to submit a claim 6 form. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶3. The following is a table of the key financial terms of the Settlement and 7 the proposed deductions:

8 $400,000 (Gross Settlement Amount)

9 - $15,000 (Plaintiff's proposed service award not to exceed amount)

10 - $25,000 (Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment - not to exceed amount)

11 - $233,333 (Class Counsel Fees Payment - not to exceed 1/3 of settlement)

12 - $10,000 (PAGA Penalties - 75% to LWDA / 25% to Allegedly Aggrieved Employees)

13 - $10,000 (Administration Expenses Payment - not to exceed amount)

14 $206,667 (Net Settlement Amount)

15 Based upon 186 Class Members who collectively worked 12,821 Workweeks (Agreement at ¶4.1), the 16 Gross Settlement Amount provides an average value of $2,150 per Class Member and $31 per 17 Workweek and after deductions the Net Settlement Amount provides an average recovery of $1,111.11 18 per Class Member and a recovery of $16.11 per Workweek. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶6.

19 On September 7, 2023, the Parties participated in an all-day mediation session presided over 20 by Louis Marlin, a respected and experienced mediator of wage and hour class actions. Following the 21 mediation, the Parties agreed on the basic terms of a settlement pursuant to a mediator's proposal which 22 was memorialized in the form of a Memorandum of Understanding. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶5. The 23 Settlement is fair, reasonable and adequate, and should be preliminarily approved because there is a 24 substantial monetary payment, and there are significant litigation and class-certification risks.
25 Therefore, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court grant preliminary approval of the Agreement 26 and enter the proposed order submitted herewith.

27 II. DESCRIPTION OF THE SETTLEMENT

28 The Gross Settlement Amount is Four Hundred Thousand Dollars ($400,000). (Agreement at ¶ 1.22.) Under the Settlement, the Gross Settlement Amount consists of the following elements: (1) payment of the Individual Class Payments to the Participating Class Members; (2) Class Counsel Fees
Payment and Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment; (3) Administration Expenses Payment; (4)

1 the Class Representative Service Payment to Plaintiff; and (5) the PAGA Penalties payment.
2 (Agreement at ¶ 1.22.) The Gross Settlement Amount does not include Defendant's share of payroll 3 taxes. (Agreement at ¶ 3.1.) The Gross Settlement Amount shall be all-in with no reversion to 4 Defendant. (Agreement at ¶ 3.1.) Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶15.

5 Within twenty-one (21) days of the Effective Date, Defendant shall deposit the Gross Settlement
6 Amount with the Administrator. (Agreement at ¶ 4.3.) The distribution of Individual Class Payments 7 to Participating Class Members along with the other Court-approved distributions shall be made by the 8 Administrator within fourteen (14) days after Defendant funds the Gross Settlement Amount.
9 (Agreement at ¶ 5.1.) Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶16.

10 The amount remaining in the Gross Settlement Amount after the deduction of Court-approved 11 amounts for Individual PAGA Payments, the LWDA PAGA Payment, the Class Representative Service 12 Payment, the Class Counsel Fees Payment, the Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment, and the 13 Administration Expenses Payment (called the "Net Settlement Amount") shall be allocated to Class
14 Members as their Individual Class Payments. (Agreement at ¶¶ 1.23, 1.28 and 3.2.) From the Net 15 Settlement Amount, the Individual Class Payment for each Participating Class Member will be 16 calculated by (a) dividing the Net Settlement Amount by the total number of Workweeks worked by 17 all Participating Class Members during the Class Period and (b) multiplying the result by each 18 Participating Class Member's Workweeks. (Agreement at ¶ 3.2(e).) Workweeks will be based on 19 Defendant's records, however, Class Members will have the right to challenge the number of 20 Workweeks. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶17.

21 Class Members may choose to opt-out of the Settlement by following the directions in the Class 22 Notice. (Agreement at ¶ 8.5, Ex. A.) The Class Notice Packet will include an Exclusion Form and an 23 Objection Form. (Agreement at ¶¶ 8.5(a), 8.7(b), Ex. A.) All Class Members who do not "opt out" will 24 be deemed Participating Class Members who will be bound by the Settlement and will be entitled to 25 receive an Individual Class Payment. (Agreement at ¶ 8.5(c).) All Allegedly Aggrieved Employees, 26 including those who submit an opt-out request, will still be paid their allocation of the PAGA Penalties 27 and will remain subject to the release of the Released PAGA Claims regardless of any request for 28 exclusion. (Agreement at ¶¶ 6.3 and 8.5(d).) Finally, the Class Notice will advise the Class Members

1 of their right to object to the Settlement and/or dispute their Workweeks. (Agreement at ¶¶ 8.6 and 2 8.7, Ex. A.) Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶18.

3 A Participating Class Member must cash his or her Individual Class Payment check within 180 4 days after it is mailed. (Agreement at ¶ 5.2.) Any settlement checks not cashed within 180 days will 5 be voided and any funds from such uncashed checks will be sent to the California Controller's
6 Unclaimed Property Fund in the name of the Class Member thereby leaving no "unpaid residue" subject
7 to the requirements of California Code of Civil Procedure Section 384, subd. (b). (Agreement at ¶ 5.4.) 8 Class Members can then claim their funds through the Controller's website. The funds from uncashed
9 checks for Individual PAGA Payments will be handled in the same manner. (Agreement at ¶ 5.4.)
10 Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶19.

11 Subject to Court approval, the Parties have agreed on ILYM Group to administer the settlement 12 in this action ("Administrator"). (Agreement at ¶ 1.2.) The Administrator will be paid for settlement 13 administration in an amount not to exceed $10,000. (Agreement at ¶ 3.2(c).) Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶20.

14 Subject to Court approval, the Agreement provides for Class Counsel to be awarded a sum not 15 to exceed one-third of the Gross Settlement Amount, as the Class Counsel Fees Payment. (Agreement 16 at ¶ 3.2(b).) Class Counsel will also be allowed to apply separately for an award of Class Counsel 17 Litigation Expenses Payment in an amount not to exceed $25,000. (Agreement at ¶ 3.2(b).) Subject 18 to Court approval, the Agreement provides for a payment not to exceed $15,000 to the Plaintiff as the 19 his Class Representative Service Payment. (Agreement at ¶ 3.2(a).) Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶21.

20 Subject to Court approval, the PAGA Penalties will be paid from the Gross Settlement Amount 21 for PAGA penalties under the California Private Attorneys General Act, Cal. Labor Code Section 2698, 22 et seq. ("PAGA"). The PAGA Penalties are $10,000. (Agreement at ¶¶ 1.34 and 3.2(d).) Pursuant to 23 the express requirements of Labor Code § 2699(i), the PAGA Penalties shall be allocated as follows:
24 75% shall be allocated to the Labor Workforce Development Agency ("LWDA") as its share of the civil 25 penalties and and 25% allocated to the Individual PAGA Payments to be distributed to the Allegedly 26 Aggrieved Employees based on the number of their respective PAGA Pay Periods. (Agreement at ¶ 27 3.2(d).) As set forth in the accompany proof of service, the LWDA has been served with this motion 28 and the Agreement. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶22.

1 III. CASE BACKGROUND

2 The description of the case and claims, along with the procedural history is set forth in the 3 Declaration of Kyle Nordrehaug at ¶¶ 7-14. The Parties engaged in thorough investigation and the 4 exchange of documents and information in connection with the Action over more than a year which 5 permitted Class Counsel to perform a thorough analysis of the claims. Decl. Nordrehaug, ¶¶ 10 and 6 14. The Parties participated in mediation on September 7, 2023 with Louis Marlin, which after arms' 7 length negotiations during the mediation, resulted in this Settlement. Decl. Nordrehaug, ¶12.

8 IV. THE SETTLEMENT MEETS THE CRITERIA NECESSARY FOR THIS COURT TO 9 GRANT PRELIMINARY APPROVAL

10 When a proposed class-wide settlement is reached, the settlement must be submitted to the court 11 for approval. 2 H. Newberg & A. Conte, Newberg on Class Actions (3d ed. 1992) at §11.41, p.11-87.
12 California "[p]ublic policy generally favors the compromise of complex class action litigation."
13 Nordstrom Comm'n Cases, 186 Cal. App. 4th 576, 581 (2010) quoting Cellphone Termination Fee 14 Cases, 180 Cal.App.4th 1110, 1117-18 (2009). Class action settlements are approved where the 15 proposed settlement is "fair, adequate and reasonable." Dunk v. Ford Motor Co., 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 16 1801 (1996) (citing Officers for Justice v. Civil Serv. Comm'n, 688 F.2d 615, 625 (9th Cir. 1982), cert.
17 denied, 459 U.S. 1217 (1983)).

18 California Rule of Court 3.769 requires court approval of the settlement of class action lawsuits.
19 Preliminary approval is the first of three steps that comprise the approval procedure for settlements of 20 class actions. The second step is the dissemination of notice of the settlement to all class members.
21 The third step is a final settlement approval hearing, at which evidence and argument concerning the 22 fairness, adequacy, and reasonableness of the settlement may be presented, and class members may be 23 heard regarding the settlement. See Dunk v. Ford Motor Co., 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1801 (1996); 24 Manual for Complex Litigation, Second §30.44 (1993); Cal. Rules of Court, rule 3.769.

25 The primary question presented on an application for preliminary approval of a proposed class 26 action settlement is whether the proposed settlement is "within the range of possible approval."
27 Manual for Complex Litigation, Second §30.44 at 229; Gautreaux v. Pierce, 690 F.2d 616, 621 n.3 (7th 28

1 Cir. 1982).<sup>3</sup> Preliminary approval is merely the prerequisite to giving notice so that “the proposed 2 settlement... may be submitted to members of the prospective Class for their acceptance or rejection.”
3 Sayaman v. Baxter Healthcare Corp., 2010 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 151997, *3 (C.D. Cal. 2010). There is 4 "a presumption of fairness . . . where . . . [a] settlement is reached through arms-length bargaining."
5 Wershba v. Apple Computer, Inc., 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 245 (2001) (citation omitted); see also Cho v.
6 Seagate Tech. Holdings, Inc., 177 Cal. App. 4th 734, 742-45 (2009) (upholding trial court's 7 determination that settlement was "fair, reasonable and adequate" where the settlement "provided 8 valuable benefits to the class . . . that were 'particularly valuable in light of the risks plaintiff would have 9 faced if she proceeded to litigate her case.'"); Newberg, 3d Ed., §11.41, p.11-88. However, the ultimate 10 question of whether the proposed settlement is fair, reasonable and adequate is made after notice of the 11 settlement is given to the class members and a final settlement hearing is held by the Court.

12 A. The Role Of The Court In Preliminary Approval Of A Class Action Settlement

13 The approval of a proposed settlement of a class action suit is a matter within the broad 14 discretion of the trial court. Wershba, supra, 91 Cal.App.4th at 234-235; Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th 1794.
15 Preliminary approval does not require the trial court to answer the ultimate question of whether a 16 proposed settlement is fair, reasonable and adequate. That final determination is made only after notice 17 of the settlement has been given to the class members and after they have been given an opportunity 18 to voice their views of the settlement or to be excluded from the settlement. 3B J. Moore, Moore's 19 Federal Practice §§23.80 - 23.85 (2003).

20 In considering a potential settlement for preliminary approval purposes, the trial court does not 21 have to reach any ultimate conclusions on the issues of fact and law which underlie the merits of the 22 dispute, and need not engage in a trial on the merits. Wershba, supra, 91 Cal.App.4th at 239-40; Dunk, 23 supra, 48 Cal.App. 4th at 1807. The Ninth Circuit explains, “the very essence of a settlement is 24 compromise, ‘a yielding of absolutes and an abandoning of highest hopes.’” Officers for Justice, 688

26 <sup>3</sup> California courts look to federal authority on class actions. Vasquez v. Superior Court, 4 Cal.3d 27 800, 821 (1971). “It is well established that in the absence of relevant state precedents trial courts are 28 urged to follow the procedures prescribed in Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure for conducting class actions.” Frazier v. City of Richmond, 184 Cal. App.3d 1491, 1499 (1986), citing Green v. Obledo, 29 Cal.3d 126, 145-146 (1981).

1 F.2d at 624. The question whether a proposed settlement is fair, reasonable and adequate necessarily 2 requires a judgment and evaluation by the attorneys for the parties based upon a comparison of “the 3 terms of the compromise with the likely rewards of litigation.” Weinberger v. Kendrick, 698 F.2d 61, 4 73 (2d Cir. 1982), cert. denied 464 U.S. 818 (1983) (quoting Protective Comm. for Indep. Stockholders 5 of TMT Trailer Ferry, Inc. v. Anderson, 390 U.S. 414, 424-25 (1968)). Thus, when analyzing the 6 settlement, the amount is “not to be judged against a hypothetical or speculative measure of what might 7 have been achieved by the negotiators.” Officers for Justice, 688 F.2d at 625, 628.

8 With regard to class action settlements, the opinions of counsel should be given considerable 9 weight both because of counsel’s familiarity with this litigation and previous experience with cases 10 such as these. Officers for Justice, 688 F.2d at 625. As a result, courts hold that the recommendation
11 of counsel is entitled to significant weight. Nat’l Rural Telecomms. Coop. v. DIRECTV, Inc., 221 12 F.R.D. 523, 528 (C.D. Cal. 2004).

13 B. Factors To Be Considered In Granting Preliminary Approval

14 A number of factors are to be considered in evaluating a settlement for purposes of preliminary 15 approval. In determining whether to grant preliminary approval, the court considers whether the "(1) 16 the proposed settlement appears to be the product of serious, informed, non-collusive negotiations, (2) 17 has no obvious deficiencies, (3) does not improperly grant preferential treatment to class representatives 18 or segments of the class, and (4) falls within the range of possible approval." In re Tableware Antitrust 19 Litig., 484 F.Supp. 2d 1078, 1079 (N.D. Cal. 2007). Courts hold that “a presumption of fairness exists 20 where: (1) the settlement is reached through arm's-length bargaining; (2) investigation and discovery 21 are sufficient to allow counsel and the court to act intelligently; (3) counsel is experienced in similar 22 litigation; and (4) the percentage of objectors is small.” Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc., 168 Cal.
23 App. 4th 116, 128 (2008). Here, the Settlement meets all of these criteria for preliminary approval and 24 therefore the presumption applies.

25 1. The Settlement is the Product of Serious, Informed and 26 Arm’s Length Negotiations by Experienced Counsel

27 This settlement is the result of extensive and hard-fought litigation as well as negotiations 28 before an experienced and well-respected mediator. The negotiations have been, at all times,

1 adversarial and non-collusive in nature. Defendant has expressly denied and continues to deny any 2 wrongdoing or legal liability arising out of the conduct alleged in the Action. Plaintiff and Class
3 Counsel have determined that it is desirable and beneficial to the Class to resolve the Released Class
4 Claims of the Class in accordance with this Settlement.<sup>4</sup>

5 Class Counsel are experienced and qualified to evaluate the class claims, the defenses asserted, 6 and the risks and benefits of trial and settlement, and Class Counsel are particularly experienced in 7 wage and hour employment class actions, as Class Counsel has previously litigated and certified similar 8 claims against other employers. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶31. The view of qualified and well-informed 9 counsel that a class action settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable is entitled to significant weight.
10 See Kullar v. Foot Locker, 168 Cal. App. 4th 116, 133 (2008) (the trial court "undoubtedly should 11 continue to place reliance on the competence and integrity of counsel, the involvement of a qualified 12 mediator, and the paucity of objectors to the settlement."); Dunk, 48 Cal. App. 4th at 1802.

13 The Parties attended an arms-length mediation session with Louis Marlin, a respected and 14 experienced mediator of wage and hour class actions, in order to reach this Settlement. In preparation 15 for the mediation, Defendant provided Class Counsel with payroll and employment data and other 16 information regarding the Class Members, various internal documents, and other compensation and 17 employment-related materials. Class Counsel analyzed the data with the assistance of damages expert 18 Berger Consulting and prepared and submitted a mediation brief to the mediator. The final settlement 19 terms were negotiated and set forth in the Agreement now presented for this Court's approval. Decl.
20 Nordrehaug at ¶ 5. Importantly, Plaintiff and Class Counsel believe that this Settlement is fair, 21 reasonable and adequate. Class Counsel will be submitting this motion and the Agreement to the 22 LWDA concurrently with the filing of this motion pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(1)(2). Decl.

23 _____
24 <sup>4</sup> The release applicable to the Class is appropriately tethered to allegations in the Action and the 25 "Released Class Claims" are narrowly defined as "all claims that were alleged, or reasonably could 26 have been alleged, based facts stated in the Operative Complaint which occurred during the Class 27 Period. Except as expressly set forth in this Agreement, Participating Class Members do not release any 28 other claims, including claims for vested benefits, wrongful termination, violation of the Fair Employment and Housing Act, unemployment insurance, disability, social security, workers' compensation, or Class claims based on facts occurring outside the Class Period." (Agreement at ¶¶ 1.39 and 6.2.)

1 Nordrehaug at ¶38.

2 Class Counsel conducted an investigation into the facts of the class action. Class Counsel 3 engaged in a thorough review and analysis of the relevant documents and data with the assistance of 4 an expert. Accordingly, the agreement to settle did not occur until Class Counsel possessed sufficient 5 information to make an informed judgment regarding the likelihood of success on the merits and the 6 results that could be obtained through further litigation. In addition, Class Counsel previously 7 negotiated settlements with other employers in actions involving nearly identical issues and analogous 8 defenses. Based on the foregoing data and their own independent investigation, evaluation and 9 experience, Class Counsel believes that the settlement with Defendant on the terms set forth in the 10 Agreement is fair, reasonable, and adequate and is in the best interest of the Class in light of all known 11 facts and circumstances, including the risk of significant delay, defenses asserted by Defendant, and 12 potential appellate issues. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶ 14.

13 Plaintiff and Class Counsel recognize the expense and length of continuing to litigate and trying 14 this Action against Defendant through possible appeals which could take several years. Class Counsel 15 has also taken into account the uncertain outcome and risk of litigation, especially in complex class 16 actions such as this Action. Class Counsel is also mindful of and recognize the inherent problems of 17 proof under, and alleged defenses to, the claims asserted in the Action. Based upon their evaluation, 18 Plaintiff and Class Counsel have determined that the Settlement set forth in the Agreement is in the best 19 interest of the Class Members. Decl. Nordrehaug, ¶ 23.

20 Here, there can be no dispute that the litigation has been hard-fought with aggressive and 21 capable advocacy on both sides. The Parties were represented by experienced and capable counsel who 22 zealously advocated their positions. Accordingly, there is likewise every reason to conclude that 23 settlement negotiations were vigorously conducted at arms' length and without any suggestion of undue 24 influence.

25 2. The Settlement Has No "Obvious Deficiencies" and Falls Well Within 26 the Range for Approval

27 The proposed Settlement herein has no "obvious deficiencies" and is well within the range of 28 possible approval. All Class Members will receive an opportunity to participate in the Settlement and

1 receive payment according to the same formula. (Agreement at ¶ 3.2(e).) Based upon 186 Class
2 Members who collectively worked 12,821 Workweeks (Agreement at ¶4.1), the Gross Settlement 3 Amount provides an average value of $2,150 per Class Member and $31 per Workweek and after 4 deductions the Net Settlement Amount provides an average recovery of $1,111.11 per Class Member 5 and a recovery of $16.11 per Workweek. This means that a Class Member who worked the entire Class 6 Period (259 weeks) will have a net recovery of $4,172, and a Class Member who worked only a single 7 week in the Class Period will have a net recovery of $16.11. Decl. Nordrehaug, ¶6.

8 The calculations to compensate for the amount due for the Class at the time of the mediation 9 were calculated by Berger Consulting, Plaintiff's damage expert. As to the Class whose claims are at 10 issue in this Action, Plaintiff used this expert to analyze the data and determine the potential unpaid 11 wages for the employees. The maximum potential damages for off-the-clock work were calculated to 12 be $510,656 based on 1 hour per workweek with 71.8% of these unpaid OTC hours at the overtime rate, 13 $82,266 for alleged missed meal period damages based upon potential 8.9% violation rate observed in 14 the time records for shifts and after deduction of meal period premiums actually paid by Defendant, 15 $131,306 for alleged missed rest period damages based upon the same 8.9% violation rate for all shifts, 16 $16,915 for alleged unreimbursed business expenses for personal cell phone usage at $5 per month.
17 Decl. Nordrehaug, ¶6. As a result, the total damage valuation was calculated that Defendant was 18 subject to a maximum damage claim in the amount of $741,142. As to potential statutory penalties, 19 Plaintiffs calculated that potential waiting time penalties were a maximum of $590,250, and the 20 potential wage statement penalties were a maximum of $237,200.<sup>5</sup> The valuations and reductions in 21 the realistic value of the claims are discussed more fully in paragraph 6 of the Decl. Nordrehaug.
22 Defendant vigorously disputed Plaintiff's calculations and exposure theories.

23 A number of defenses asserted by Defendant, however, present serious threats to the claims of 24

25 <sup>5</sup> While Plaintiff alleged claims for statutory penalties pursuant to Labor Code Sections 203 and 26 226, at mediation Plaintiff recognized that these claims were subject to additional, separate defenses
27 asserted by Defendants, including, a good faith dispute defense as to whether any wages were owed 28 given Defendants' position that Plaintiff were properly compensated and classified. See Nordstrom Commission Cases, 186 Cal. App. 4th 576, 584 (2010) ("There is no willful failure to pay wages if the employer and employee have a good faith dispute as to whether and when the wages were due.").

1 the Plaintiff and the other Class Members. Defendant asserted that Defendant's practices complied
2 with all applicable Labor laws. Defendant argued that Class Members were properly paid for all time
3 worked and that all work time was properly recorded. Defendant contends that its meal and rest period 4 policies fully complied with California law and Defendant did not fail to provide the opportunity for 5 legally required meal and rest breaks. Defendant could argue that its payment of meal period premiums
6 is evidence of its lawful policies and practices. Defendant contended that there was no failure to pay 7 for business expenses and any cell phone usage was merely convenient and voluntary such that 8 reimbursement was not legally required. Finally, Defendant could argue that the Supreme Court 9 decision in Brinker v. Superior Court, 53 Cal. 4th 1004 (2012), weakened Plaintiff's claims, on 10 liability, value, and class certifiability as to the meal and rest period claims. Defendant also argues that 11 based on its facially lawful practices, Defendant acted in good faith and without willfulness, which if 12 accepted would negate the claims for waiting time penalties and/or inaccurate wage statements. If 13 successful, Defendant's defenses could eliminate or substantially reduce any recovery to the Class.
14 While Plaintiff believes that these defenses could be overcome, Defendant maintains these defenses 15 have merit and therefore present a serious risk to recovery by the Class. Decl. Nordrehaug, ¶ 24.

16 In addition, there was also a significant risk that, if the Action was not settled, Plaintiffs would 17 be unable to obtain a certified class and maintain the certified class through trial, and thereby not 18 recover on behalf of any employees other than themselves. At the time of the mediation, Defendant 19 forcefully opposed the propriety of class certification, arguing that individual issues precluded class 20 certification. Further, as demonstrated by the California Supreme Court decision in Duran v. U.S. Bank
21 National Assn., 59 Cal. 4th 1 (2014), there are significant hurdles to overcome for a class-wide recovery
22 even where the class has been certified. While other cases have approved class certification in wage 23 and hour claims, class certification in this action was hotly disputed and the maintenance of a certified 24 class through trial was by no means a foregone conclusion. Decl. Nordrehaug, ¶ 25.

25 In light of these uncertainties, the Gross Settlement Amount of $400,000 is fair and reasonable.
26 This amount represents more than 50% of the maximum value of the alleged damages at issue in this 27
28

1 case at the time this Settlement was negotiated.<sup>6</sup> In addition, the above maximum calculations should 2 then be adjusted in consideration for both the risk of class certification and the risk of establishing 3 class-wide liability on all claims. Given the amount of the settlement as compared to the potential value
4 of claims in this case and the defenses asserted by Defendant, this settlement is fair and reasonable.<sup>7</sup> 5 Clearly, the goal of this litigation has been met. Decl. Nordrehaug, ¶6.

6 Where both sides face significant uncertainty, the attendant risks favor settlement. Hanlon v.
7 Chrysler Corp., 150 F.3d 1011, 1026 (9th Cir. 1998). After arm's length negotiations between 8 experienced and informed counsel, the Parties recognized the potential risks and agreed on the 9 Settlement with a Gross Settlement Amount of $400,000. As the Court held in Glass, where the parties 10 faced uncertainties similar to those here:

11 In light of the above-referenced uncertainty in the law, the risk, expense, complexity, 12 and likely duration of further litigation likewise favors the settlement. Regardless of 13 how this Court might have ruled on the merits of the legal issues, the losing party likely 14 would have appealed, and the parties would have faced the expense and uncertainty of 15 litigating an appeal. 'The expense and possible duration of the litigation should be 16 considered in evaluating the reasonableness of [a] settlement.'"

18 (9th Cir. 2000)).

19 3. The Settlement Does Not Improperly Grant Preferential Treatment To 20 Class Representatives or Segments Of The Class

21 The relief provided in the Settlement will benefit all members of the Class. The Settlement does

22 <sup>6</sup> Because the PAGA claim is not a class claim and primarily is paid to the State of California, 23 Plaintiffs have not included the PAGA claim in this discussion of the value of the class claims. The 24 PAGA claim is addressed in the Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶33.

25 <sup>7</sup> See Glass v. UBS Fin. Servs., 2007 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 8476 (N.D. Cal. 2007) (approving a 26 settlement where the settlement amount constituted approximately 25% of the estimated overtime 27 damages for the class); Stovall-Gusman v. W.W. Granger, Inc., 2015 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 78671, at *12 28 (N.D. Cal. 2015) (granting final approval where "the proposed Total Settlement Amount represents approximately 10% of what class might have been awarded had they succeeded at trial."); *Dunleavy
v. Nadler (In re Mego Fin. Corp. Sec. Litig.)*, 213 F.3d 454, 459 (9th Cir. 2000) (affirming approval of a class settlement which represented "roughly one-sixth of the potential recovery".) See also *Viceral
v. Mistras Grp., Inc.*, 2016 WL 5907869 (N.D. Cal. 2016) (approving wage and hour class action settlement amounting to 8.1% of full value); Ma v. Covidien Holding, Inc., 2014 WL 2472316, (C.D.
Cal. 2014) (approving wage and hour class action settlement worth "somewhere between 9% and 18%" of maximum valuation).

1 not grant preferential treatment to Plaintiff or segments of the Class in any way. Payments to the Class 2 Members are all determined under a neutral methodology. Each Participating Class Member will 3 receive the same opportunity to participate in and receive payment through a neutral formula that is 4 based upon the Workweeks for that individual. (Agreement at ¶ 3.2(e).) Decl. Nordrehaug, ¶4.

5 Plaintiff will apply to the Court for Class Representative Service Payment in consideration for 6 his service and for the risks undertaken on behalf of the Class. (Agreement at ¶ 3.2(a).) Plaintiff 7 performed their duties admirably by working with Class Counsel over the course of a year. The 8 Declaration of the Plaintiff is submitted herewith in support. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶27. At this stage, 9 the requested service award of $15,000 is well within the accepted range of awards for purposes of 10 preliminary approval. See e.g. Andrews v. Plains All Am. Pipeline L.P., 2022 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 11 172183, at *11 (C.D. Cal. 2022) (finding that the requested service awards of $15,000 each are 12 appropriate); Reynolds v. Direct Flow Med., Inc., 2019 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 149865, at *19 (N.D. Cal.
13 2019) (granting request for $12,500 service award); Mathein v. Pier 1 Imps. (U.S.), Inc., 2018 U.S.
14 Dist. LEXIS 71386 (E.D. Cal. 2018) (awarding $12,500 where average class member payment was 15 $351); Louie v. Kaiser Foundation Health Plan, Inc., 2008 WL 4473183, *7 (S.D. Cal. Oct. 06, 2008) 16 (awarding $25,000 service award to each of six plaintiffs in overtime class action); Glass v. UBS Fin.
17 Servs., 2007 WL 221862, *16-17 (N.D. Cal. Jan. 27 2007) (awarding $25,000 service award in 18 overtime class action and a pool of $100,000 in enhancements). As explained in Glass, service awards 19 are routinely awarded to class representatives to compensate the employees for the time and effort 20 expended on the case, for the risk of litigation, for the fear of suing an employer and retaliation there 21 from, and to serve as an incentive to vindicate the statutory rights of all employees. 2007 WL 221862 22 at *16-17.

23 4. The Stage Of The Proceedings Are Sufficiently Advanced To Permit 24 Preliminary Approval Of The Settlement

25 The stage of the proceedings at which this Settlement was reached also militates in favor of 26 preliminary approval and ultimately, final approval of the Settlement. Class Counsel has conducted 27 a thorough investigation into the facts of the class action. Class Counsel began investigating the Class 28 Members' claims before the Action was filed. Class Counsel conducted a review and analysis of the 1 relevant documents and data. Class Counsel was also experienced with the claims at issue here, as 2 Class Counsel previously litigated and settled similar claims in other actions. Accordingly, the 3 agreement to settle did not occur until Class Counsel possessed sufficient information to make an 4 informed judgment regarding the likelihood of success on the merits and the results that could be 5 obtained through further litigation. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶28.

6 Based on the foregoing data and their own independent investigation and evaluation, Class
7 Counsel is of the opinion that the Settlement with Defendant for the consideration and on the terms set 8 forth in the Agreement is fair, reasonable, and adequate and is in the best interest of the Class in light 9 of all known facts and circumstances, including the risk of significant delay, defenses asserted by 10 Defendant, and numerous potential appellate issues. There can be no doubt that Counsel for both 11 parties possessed sufficient information to make an informed judgment regarding the likelihood of 12 success on the merits and the results that could be obtained through further litigation. Decl.
13 Nordrehaug at ¶29.

14 V. THE CLASS IS PROPERLY CERTIFIED FOR SETTLEMENT PURPOSES ONLY

15 Certification is appropriate when the moving party has demonstrated the existence of an 16 ascertainable class and a well-defined community of interest among the class. See, e.g., Brinker
17 Restaurant Corp. v. Superior Court, 53 Cal. 4th 1004, 1021 (2012). Plaintiff contends that the proposed 18 settlement meet all of the requirements for class certification under California Code of Civil Procedure 19 § 382 as demonstrated below, and therefore, the Court may appropriately approve the Class as defined 20 in the Agreement. This Court should conditionally certify the Class for settlement purposes only, 21 defined as follows:

22 All individuals who were employed by Defendant in California and classified as a non-23 exempt employee at any time during the Class Period, excluding those employees who signed severance agreements.

24 (Agreement at ¶ 1.5.)

25 The Class Period is from January 19, 2019 through January 5, 2024 (Agreement at ¶ 1.13.)

26 A. California Code of Civil Procedure § 382

27 Plaintiff seeks certification of this Class for settlement purposes under California Code of Civil 28

1 Procedure § 382. The California Supreme Court has summarized the standard for determining whether 2 class certification is appropriate as follows:

3 Code of Civil Procedure Section 382 authorizes class actions “when the question is one 4 of a common or general interest, of many persons, or when the parties are numerous, 5 and it is impracticable to bring them all before the court...” The party seeking 6 certification has the burden to establish the existence of both an ascertainable class and 7 a well-defined community of interest among class members. (citations omitted). The 8 “community of interest” requirement embodies three factors: (1) predominant common 9 questions of law or fact; (2) class representatives with claims or defenses typical of the 10 class; and (3) class representatives who can adequately represent the class.

11 Sav-On Drug Stores, Inc. v. Superior Court, 34 Cal. 4th 319, 326 (2004).

12 Defendant does not dispute, for settlement purposes only, that all of the elements for class 13 certification are met here. Defendant does not concede that certification is appropriate outside of this 14 Settlement and preserves all rights to oppose certification if, for any reason, the settlement does not 15 become effective. While Defendant reserves all rights to dispute that the Plaintiff can satisfy these 16 requirements, the Parties agree that Defendant will not dispute that these requirements may be satisfied 17 in this case for purposes of settlement only and therefore, the proposed Class should be certified for 18 purposes of settlement only. (Agreement at ¶ 2.9.)

19 B. The Proposed Class Is Ascertainable and Numerous

20 Plaintiff brings this action on behalf of a Class of non-exempt employees of Defendant during 21 the Class Period. Plaintiff asserts that all of these individuals are ascertainable because the class 22 members can readily be determined through examination of Defendant’s files. Given that the Class 23 consists of 186 members, Plaintiff maintains that numerosity is clearly satisfied. See Bowles v.
24 Superior Court, 44 Cal.2d 574 (1955) (class with 10 members sufficiently numerous); Rose v. City of 25 Hayward, 126 Cal.App.3d 926, 934 (1981) (class of 48 members satisfies numerosity requirement.)
26 Here, Plaintiff asserts that the 186 current and former employees that comprise the Class can be 27 identified based on Defendant’s records and are sufficiently numerous for class certification. Decl.
28 Nordrehaug at ¶30.

C. Common Issues of Law and Fact Predominate

Predominance of common issues of law or fact does not require that the common issues be dispositive of the entire controversy or even that they be dispositive of all liability issues. 1 Newberg

1 on Class Actions, Section 4.25 at 4-82, 4-83 (1992). “Predominance is a comparative concept, and ‘the 2 necessity for class members to individually establish eligibility and damages does not mean individual 3 fact questions predominate.’” Sav-On, 34 Cal. 4th at 334.

4 Commonality exists if there is a predominant common legal question regarding how an 5 employer’s policies impact its employees. Ghazaryan v. Diva Limousine, Ltd., 169 Cal. App. 4th 1524, 6 1536 (2008) (“[T]he common legal question remains the overall impact of Diva's policies on its 7 drivers.”) Whether the plaintiff is likely to prevail on their theory of recovery is irrelevant at the 8 certification stage since the question is “essentially a procedural one that does not ask whether an action 9 is legally or factually meritorious.” Linder v. Thrifty Oil Co., 23 Cal. 4th 429, 439-440 (2003).

10 Here, Plaintiff contends that common questions of law and fact are present, specifically the 11 common questions of whether Defendant’s employment practices were lawful, whether Class members 12 were lawfully compensated for all hours worked, whether Defendant failed to provide meal and rest 13 periods to Class Members, whether Defendant failed to provide required expense reimbursement, and 14 whether Class Members are entitled to damages and penalties as a result of these practices. Plaintiff 15 contends that certification of this Class is appropriate because Defendant allegedly engaged in uniform 16 practices with respect to the Class Members. As a result, these common questions of liability could be 17 answered on a class wide basis. Decl. Nordrehaug, ¶30. Defendant disputes that common questions 18 predominate but will not oppose such a finding for purposes of this Settlement only.

19 D. The Claims of the Plaintiff Are Typical of the Class Claims

20 The typicality requirement requires the Plaintiff to demonstrate that the members of the class 21 have the same or similar claims as the Plaintiff. “The typicality requirement is met when the claims 22 of the [p]laintiff arise from the same event or are based on the same legal theories.” Tate v.
23 Weyerhaeuser Co., 723 F.2d 598, 608 (8th Cir. 1983). In Hanlon, supra, 150 F.3d at 1020, the Ninth 24 Circuit held that “[u]nder the rule's permissive standards, representative claims are ‘typical’ if they are 25 reasonably coextensive with those of absent class members; they need not be substantially identical.”

26 In this Action, Plaintiff contends that the typicality requirement is fully satisfied. Plaintiff, like 27 every other member of the Class, were employed by Defendant as a non-exempt employee during the 28 Class Period, and, like every other member of the Class, was subject to the same employment practices.

1 Plaintiff, like every other member of the Class, also claims owed compensation as a result of the 2 Defendant's uniform company policies and practices. Thus, the claims of Plaintiff and the members 3 of the Class arise from the same course of conduct by Defendant, involve the same issues, and are based 4 on the same legal theories. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶30. For purposes of settlement, Plaintiff asserts that 5 the typicality requirement is met as to the common issues presented in this case. Defendant does not 6 oppose a finding of typicality for purposes of this Settlement only.

7 E. The Class Representation Fairly and Adequately Protected the Class

8 Plaintiff contends that the Class Members are adequately represented here because Plaintiff and 9 representing counsel (a) do not have any conflicts of interest with other class members, and (b) will 10 prosecute the case vigorously on behalf of the class. Hanlon, 150 F.3d at 1020. This requirement is 11 met here. First, Plaintiff is well aware of his duties as the representative of the Class and has actively 12 participated in the prosecution of this case to date. Plaintiff effectively communicated with Class 13 Counsel, provided documents and information to Class Counsel, and participated in the investigation 14 and resolution of the Action. The personal involvement of the Plaintiff was essential to the prosecution 15 of the Action and the monetary settlement reached. Second, Plaintiff retained competent counsel who 16 are experienced in employment class actions and who have no conflicts. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶ 31.
17 Third, there is no antagonism between the interests of the Plaintiff and those of the Class. Both the 18 Plaintiff and the Class Members seek monetary relief under the same set of facts and legal theories.
19 Under such circumstances, there can be no conflicts of interest, and adequacy of representation is 20 satisfied. Reaves v. Ketoro, Inc., 2020 U.S. Dist. Lexis 167926, *23 (C.D. Cal. 2020). Defendants 21 dispute that the adequacy requirement is satisfied but will not oppose such a finding for purposes of this 22 Settlement only.

23 F. The Superiority Requirement Is Met

24 To certify a class, the Court must also determine that a class action is superior to other available 25 methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy. "Where classwide litigation of 26 common issues will reduce litigation costs and promote greater efficiency, a class action may be 27 superior to other methods of litigation." Valentino v. Carter-Wallace, Inc., 97 F.3d 1227, 1234 (9th Cir.
28 1996). As courts have previously observed:

1 Absent class treatment, each individual plaintiff would present in separate, duplicative 2 proceedings the same or essentially the same arguments and evidence, including expert 3 testimony. The result would be a multiplicity of trials conducted at enormous expense 4 to both the judicial system and the litigants. “It would be neither efficient nor fair to 5 anyone, including defendants, to force multiple trials to hear the same evidence and 6 decide the same issues.”

7 Sav-On, 34 Cal. 4th at 340.

8 Here, Plaintiff contends that a class action is the superior mechanism for resolution of the claims 9 as pled by the Plaintiff. While Defendant disputes that class treatment is superior, Defendant does not 10 dispute a finding of superiority in this action for purposes of this Settlement only.

11 VI. THE PROPOSED METHOD OF CLASS NOTICE IS APPROPRIATE

12 The Court has broad discretion in approving a practical notice program. The Parties have 13 agreed upon procedures by which the Class Members will be provided with written notice of the 14 Settlement similar to that approved and utilized in hundreds of class action settlements. In accordance 15 with the Agreement, Defendant will provide to the Administrator a confidential electronic spreadsheet 16 containing the Class Data. (Agreement at ¶ 4.2.) Within 14 days after receiving the Class Data, the 17 Administrator will mail the Class Notice to all Class Members via first-class U.S. Mail using the most 18 current mailing address information available. (Agreement at ¶ 8.4(b).)

19 The Class Notice, drafted jointly and agreed upon by the Parties through their respective counsel
20 and to be approved by the Court, includes all relevant information. (See Exhibit “A” to the Agreement.)
21 The Class Notice will include, among other information: (i) information regarding the Action; (ii) the 22 impact on the rights of the Class Members if they do not opt out, including a description of the 23 applicable release; (iii) information to the Class Members regarding how to opt out and how to object 24 to the Settlement; (iv) the estimated Individual Class Payment for each of the Class Members; (iii) the 25 amount of attorneys’ fees and expenses to be sought; (v) the amount of the Plaintiff’s service award 26 request; and (vi) the anticipated expenses of the Administrator. An Objection form and a Request for 27 Exclusion form will accompany the Class Notice, the forms of which are part of Exhibit A to the 28 Agreement. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶32.

The Class Notice will state that the Class Members shall have sixty (60) days from the date that the Notice is mailed to them (the “Response Deadline”) to request exclusion (opt-out) or to submit a

1 written objection. (Agreement at ¶¶ 1.43, 8.5, 8.7.) In the event of a re-mailing, the Response Deadline
2 will be extended by an additional 14 days. (Id.) Class Members shall be given the opportunity to object
3 to the Settlement and/or requests for attorneys’ fees and expenses and to appear at the Final Approval
4 Hearing. (Agreement at ¶ 8.7.) Class Members who do not submit a timely and proper request to opt-5 out will automatically receive a payment of their Individual Class Payment. This notice program was 6 designed to meaningfully reach the Class Members and it advises them of all pertinent information 7 concerning the Settlement. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶32. The mailing and distribution of the Class Notice 8 satisfies the requirements of due process and is the best notice practicable under the circumstances and 9 complies with Rules of Court 3.766 and 3.769(f).

10 VII. CONCLUSION

11 Plaintiffs respectfully request that the Court preliminarily approve the proposed settlement and 12 sign the proposed Preliminary Approval Order, which is submitted herewith, and schedule the final 13 approval hearing for the proposed date of July 30, 2024, which date is at least one hundred twenty (120)
14 days from the date of Preliminary Approval.
