1 I. INTRODUCTION

2 Plaintiffs Isaac Rodriguez, Maria Alvarez, Cecilio Guzman Viveros, Kate Lopez, and Gilberto
3 Serrato Moreno (“Plaintiffs”) respectfully submits this memorandum in support of the unopposed
4 motion for preliminary approval of the proposed class action settlement with Defendant Feghali Foods
5 (“Defendant”), and seek entry of an order: (1) preliminarily approving the proposed settlement of this 6 class action with Defendant; (2) for settlement purposes only, conditionally certifying the Class, which 7 is comprised of “all individuals who were employed by Defendant in California and classified as a 8 non-exempt employee at any time during the Class Period”; (3) provisionally appointing Plaintiffs as 9 the representatives of the Class; (4) provisionally appointing Norman B. Blumenthal, Kyle R.
10 Nordrehaug, Aparajit Bhowmik, Nicholas J. De Blouw, Jeffrey S. Herman, Sergio J. Puche, and Trevor 11 G. Moran of Blumenthal Nordrehaug Bhowmik De Blouw LLP as Class Counsel; (5) approving the 12 form and method for providing class-wide notice; (6) directing that notice of the proposed settlement 13 be given to the class; (7) appointing Apex Class Action as Administrator, and (8) scheduling a final 14 approval hearing date, proposed for October 1, 2024 which is at least 120 days from preliminary 15 approval, to consider Plaintiffs’ motion for final approval of the settlement and for approval of 16 attorneys’ fees and expenses. Plaintiffs and Defendant (collectively the “Parties”) have reached a full 17 and final settlement of the above-captioned action, which is set forth in the Class Action and PAGA
18 Settlement Agreement (“Agreement”) filed concurrently with the Court.<sup>1</sup> A copy of the fully executed
19 Agreement is attached as Exhibit #1 to the Declaration of Kyle Nordrehaug (“Decl. Nordrehaug”), 20 served and filed herewith. The form of the Agreement is based upon the Los Angeles County Superior 21 Court model form for a class and PAGA settlement.

22 As consideration for this Settlement, the non-reversionary Gross Settlement Amount of Eight 23 Hundred Thousand Dollars ($800,000) (the “Gross Settlement Amount”) is to be paid by Defendant, 24 as set forth in the Agreement. The Gross Settlement Amount will settle all issues pending in the Action 25 between the Parties and will be made in full and final settlement of the Released Class Claims in 26 exchange for the payments to Participating Class Members from the Net Settlement Amount, and 27

28 <sup>1</sup> Capitalized terms shall have the same meaning as defined in the Agreement.

1 includes (a) the costs of administration of the settlement, (b) all attorneys' fees and costs, (c) Class
2 Representative Service Payments, and (d) the PAGA Penalties payment allocated 75% to the LWDA
3 and 25% to the Aggrieved Employees. (Agreement at ¶ 1.25.) Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶3. The following 4 is a table of the key Settlement terms and the proposed deductions:

5       $800,000 (Gross Settlement Amount)
6             - $50,000 (Plaintiffs' proposed service awards not to exceed $10,000 each) 7             - $30,000 (Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment - not to exceed amount) 8             - $266,666 (Class Counsel Fees Payment - not to exceed 1/3 of settlement)
9             - $50,000 (PAGA Payment - 75% to LWDA / 25% to Aggrieved Employees)
10            - $20,000 (Administration Expenses Payment - not to exceed amount) 11       $383,334 (Net Settlement Amount)

12 Based upon 1,669 Class Members who worked an estimated 65,000 work weeks (Agreement at ¶ 4.1), 13 the Gross Settlement Amount provides an average value of $473 per Class Member and $12.30 per 14 workweek and after deductions the Net Settlement Amount provides an average recovery of $229.67 15 per Class Member and a recovery of $5.89 per workweek. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶6.

16       On February 16, 2024, the Parties participated in an all-day mediation session presided over 17 Tagore Subramaniam, a respected and experienced mediator of wage and hour class actions. Following 18 the mediation, the Parties agreed on the basic terms of a settlement pursuant to a mediator's proposal 19 which was memorialized in the form of a Memorandum of Understanding. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶5.
20 The Settlement is fair, reasonable and adequate, and should be preliminarily approved because there 21 is a substantial monetary payment, and there are significant litigation and class-certification risks.
22 Therefore, Plaintiffs respectfully request that this Court grant preliminary approval of the Agreement 23 and enter the proposed order submitted herewith.

24 II. DESCRIPTION OF THE SETTLEMENT

25       The Gross Settlement Amount is Eight Hundred Thousand Dollars ($800,000). (Agreement at 26 ¶ 1.25.) Under the Settlement, the Gross Settlement Amount consists of the following elements: (1)
27 payment of the Individual Class Payments to the Participating Class Members; (2) Class Counsel Fees 28 Payment and Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment; (3) Administration Expenses Payment; (4) the Class Representative Service Payments to the Plaintiffs; and (5) the PAGA Penalties payment.
(Agreement at ¶ 1.25.) The Gross Settlement Amount does not include Defendant's share of payroll taxes. (Agreement at ¶ 3.1.) The Gross Settlement Amount shall be all-in with no reversion to 1 Defendant. (Agreement at ¶ 3.1.) Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶15.

2 The Agreement contains appropriate terms which have been previously approved by this Court
3 and Courts throughout California. (See Agreement at ¶¶ 1.31, 3.2, 4.3, 5.1.) The proposed Class
4 Notice also provides the required protections for the Class to opt out, object or dispute their weeks
5 worked. (See Agreement at ¶¶ 8.5, 8.6, 8.7, and Exhibit A.) The additional details of the Settlement 6 are addressed in the Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶¶ 16-22. As set forth in the accompanying proof of service, 7 the LWDA has been served with this motion and the Agreement.

8 III. CASE BACKGROUND

9 The description of the case and claims, along with the procedural history is set forth in the 10 Declaration of Kyle Nordrehaug at ¶¶ 7-14. The Parties engaged in thorough investigation and the 11 exchange of documents and information in connection with the Action for more than two years which 12 permitted Class Counsel to perform a thorough analysis of the claims. Decl. Nordrehaug, ¶¶ 10 and 13 14. The Parties participated in mediation on February 16, 2024 with Tagore Subramaniam, which after 14 arms' length negotiations through this mediation, resulted in this Settlement. Decl. Nordrehaug, ¶12.

15 IV. THE SETTLEMENT MEETS THE CRITERIA NECESSARY FOR THIS COURT TO 16 GRANT PRELIMINARY APPROVAL

17 California "[p]ublic policy generally favors the compromise of complex class action litigation." 18 Nordstrom Comm'n Cases, 186 Cal. App. 4th 576, 581 (2010) quoting Cellphone Termination Fee 19 Cases, 180 Cal.App.4th 1110, 1117-18 (2009). Class action settlements are approved where the 20 proposed settlement is "fair, adequate and reasonable." Dunk v. Ford Motor Co., 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 21 1801 (1996) (citing Officers for Justice v. Civil Serv. Comm'n, 688 F.2d 615, 625 (9th Cir. 1982), cert.
22 denied, 459 U.S. 1217 (1983)).

23 Preliminary approval is the first of three steps that comprise the approval procedure for 24 settlements of class actions. The second step is the dissemination of notice of the settlement to all class 25 members. The third step is a final settlement approval hearing, at which evidence and argument 26 concerning the fairness, adequacy, and reasonableness of the settlement may be presented, and class 27 members may be heard regarding the settlement. See Dunk v. Ford Motor Co., 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 28 1801 (1996); Manual for Complex Litigation, Second §30.44 (1993); Cal. Rules of Court, rule 3.769.

1           The primary question presented on an application for preliminary approval of a proposed class 2 action settlement is whether the proposed settlement is “within the range of possible approval.”
3 Manual for Complex Litigation, Second §30.44 at 229; Gautreaux v. Pierce, 690 F.2d 616, 621 n.3 (7th 4 Cir. 1982).<sup>2</sup> Preliminary approval is merely the prerequisite to giving notice so that “the proposed 5 settlement... may be submitted to members of the prospective Class for their acceptance or rejection.”
6 Sayaman v. Baxter Healthcare Corp., 2010 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 151997, *3 (C.D. Cal. 2010). There is 7 "a presumption of fairness . . . where . . . [a] settlement is reached through arms-length bargaining."
8 Wershba v. Apple Computer, Inc., 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 245 (2001) (citation omitted); see also Cho v.
9 Seagate Tech. Holdings, Inc., 177 Cal. App. 4th 734, 742-45 (2009) (upholding trial court's 10 determination that settlement was "fair, reasonable and adequate" where the settlement "provided 11 valuable benefits to the class . . . that were 'particularly valuable in light of the risks plaintiff would have 12 faced if she proceeded to litigate her case.'"); Newberg, 3d Ed., §11.41, p.11-88. However, the ultimate 13 question of whether the proposed settlement is fair, reasonable and adequate is made after notice of the 14 settlement is given to the class members and a final settlement hearing is held by the Court.

15           A.     The Role Of The Court In Preliminary Approval Of A Class Action Settlement

16           The approval of a proposed settlement of a class action suit is a matter within the broad 17 discretion of the trial court. Wershba, supra, 91 Cal.App.4th at 234-235; Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th 1794.
18 In considering a potential settlement for preliminary approval purposes, the trial court does not have 19 to reach any ultimate conclusions on the issues of fact and law which underlie the merits of the dispute, 20 and need not engage in a trial on the merits. Wershba, supra, 91 Cal.App.4th at 239-40; Dunk, supra, 21 48 Cal.App. 4th at 1807. The Ninth Circuit explained that, “the very essence of a settlement is 22 compromise, ‘a yielding of absolutes and an abandoning of highest hopes.’” Officers for Justice, 688 23 F.2d at 624. Thus, when analyzing the settlement, the amount is “not to be judged against a 24 hypothetical or speculative measure of what might have been achieved by the negotiators.” Officers

25 _____
26           <sup>2</sup> California courts look to federal authority on class actions. Vasquez v. Superior Court, 4 Cal.3d 27 800, 821 (1971). “It is well established that in the absence of relevant state precedents trial courts are 28 urged to follow the procedures prescribed in Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure for conducting class actions.” Frazier v. City of Richmond, 184 Cal. App.3d 1491, 1499 (1986), citing Green v. Obledo, 29 Cal.3d 126, 145-146 (1981).

1 for Justice, 688 F.2d at 625, 628.

2 With regard to class action settlements, the opinions of counsel should be given considerable 3 weight both because of counsel’s familiarity with this litigation and previous experience with cases
4 such as these. Officers for Justice, 688 F.2d at 625. As a result, courts hold that the recommendation
5 of counsel is entitled to significant weight. Nat’l Rural Telecomms. Coop. v. DIRECTV, Inc., 221
6 F.R.D. 523, 528 (C.D. Cal. 2004).

7 B. Factors To Be Considered In Granting Preliminary Approval

8 A number of factors are to be considered in evaluating a settlement for purposes of preliminary 9 approval. In determining whether to grant preliminary approval, the court considers whether the "(1) 10 the proposed settlement appears to be the product of serious, informed, non-collusive negotiations, (2) 11 has no obvious deficiencies, (3) does not improperly grant preferential treatment to class representatives 12 or segments of the class, and (4) falls within the range of possible approval." In re Tableware Antitrust 13 Litig., 484 F.Supp. 2d 1078, 1079 (N.D. Cal. 2007). Courts hold that “a presumption of fairness exists 14 where: (1) the settlement is reached through arm's-length bargaining; (2) investigation and discovery 15 are sufficient to allow counsel and the court to act intelligently; (3) counsel is experienced in similar 16 litigation; and (4) the percentage of objectors is small.” Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc., 168 Cal.
17 App. 4th 116, 128 (2008). Here, the Settlement meets all of these criteria for preliminary approval and 18 therefore the presumption applies.

19 1. The Settlement is the Product of Serious, Informed and 20 Arm’s Length Negotiations by Experienced Counsel

21 This settlement is the result of extensive and hard-fought litigation as well as negotiations 22 before an experienced and well-respected mediator. Defendant has expressly denied and continues to 23 deny any wrongdoing or legal liability arising out of the conduct alleged in the Action. Plaintiffs and 24 Class Counsel have determined that it is desirable and beneficial to the Class to resolve the Released 25 Class Claims of the Class in accordance with this Settlement. The release applicable to the Class is 26 appropriately tethered to allegations in the Action. (Agreement at ¶ 6.2.)

27 Class Counsel are experienced and qualified to evaluate the class claims, the defenses asserted, 28 and the risks and benefits of trial and settlement, and Class Counsel are particularly experienced in

1 wage and hour employment class actions, as Class Counsel has previously litigated and certified similar 2 claims against other employers. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶31. The view of qualified and well-informed 3 counsel that a class action settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable is entitled to significant weight.
4 See Kullar v. Foot Locker, 168 Cal. App. 4th 116, 133 (2008) (the trial court "undoubtedly should 5 continue to place reliance on the competence and integrity of counsel, the involvement of a qualified 6 mediator, and the paucity of objectors to the settlement."); Dunk, 48 Cal. App. 4th at 1802.

7 The Parties attended an arms-length mediation session with Tagore Subramaniam, a respected 8 jurist and experienced mediator of wage and hour class actions, in order to reach this Settlement. In 9 preparation for the mediation, Defendant provided Class Counsel with redacted payroll, time and 10 employment data, along with and other information regarding the Class Members, various internal 11 documents, and other compensation and employment-related materials. Class Counsel analyzed the 12 data with the assistance of damages expert Berger Consulting and prepared and submitted a mediation 13 brief to the mediator. The final settlement terms were negotiated and set forth in the Agreement now 14 presented for this Court's approval. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶ 5. Importantly, Plaintiffs and Class Counsel 15 believe that this Settlement is fair, reasonable and adequate.

16 Class Counsel has conducted a thorough investigation into the facts of the class action as 17 detailed in the Decl. Nordrehaug. Based on the Class data and their own independent investigation, 18 evaluation and experience, Class Counsel believes that the settlement with Defendant on the terms set
19 forth in the Agreement is fair, reasonable, and adequate and is in the best interest of the Class in light 20 of all known facts and circumstances, including the risk of significant delay, defenses asserted by 21 Defendant, and potential appellate issues. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶ 14. Plaintiffs and Class Counsel 22 recognize the risks, expense and length of continuing to litigate and trying this Action against 23 Defendant and then litigating possible appeals which could take several years. Plaintiffs and Class 24 Counsel have determined that the Settlement set forth in the Agreement is in the best interest of the 25 Class Members. Decl. Nordrehaug, ¶ 23.

26 Here, there can be no dispute that the litigation has been hard-fought with aggressive and 27 capable advocacy on both sides. The Parties were represented by experienced and capable counsel who 28 zealously advocated their positions. Accordingly, "[t]here is likewise every reason to conclude that

1 settlement negotiations were vigorously conducted at arms' length and without any suggestion of undue 2 influence." In re Wash. Public Power Supply Sec. Litig., 720 F. Supp. 1379, 1392 (D. Ariz 1989).

3 2. The Settlement Has No "Obvious Deficiencies" and Falls Well Within 4 the Range for Approval

5 The proposed Settlement herein has no "obvious deficiencies" and is well within the range of 6 possible approval. All Class Members will receive an opportunity to participate in the Settlement and 7 receive payment according to the same formula. (Agreement at ¶ 3.2(e).) Based upon 1,669 Class
8 Members who worked an estimated 65,000 work weeks (Agreement at ¶ 4.1), the Gross Settlement 9 Amount provides an average value of $473 per Class Member and $12.30 per workweek and after 10 deductions the Net Settlement Amount provides an average recovery of $229.67 per Class Member and 11 a recovery of $5.89 per workweek. Decl. Nordrehaug, ¶6.

12 The calculations to compensate for the amount due for the Class at the time of the mediation 13 were calculated by Berger Consulting, Plaintiffs' damage expert. As to the Class whose claims are at 14 issue in this Action, Plaintiffs used the expert to analyze the data and determine the potential unpaid 15 wages for the employees. The maximum potential damages were calculated to be $121,111 for the 16 alleged unpaid overtime premium wages, $1,187,057 for the alleged unpaid wages for off-the-clock 17 work at 1 hour per workweek, $2,763 for the alleged unpaid wages due to miscalculation of the regular 18 rate when paying wages, $9,183 for the alleged underpayment of meal period premiums and sick pay, 19 $199,154 for alleged meal period damages based upon a 10% potential violation rate for shifts worked 20 and after deducting the meal premiums actually paid by Defendant, $3,554,307 for alleged rest period 21 damages based upon a 76.8% potential violation rate for shifts worked observed in the time records, 22 $159,235 for alleged unreimbursed business expenses for personal cell phone usage at $5 per month.
23 Decl. Nordrehaug, ¶6. As a result, the total damage valuation was calculated that Defendant was 24 subject to a maximum damage claim in the amount of $5,232,810. As to potential penalties, Plaintiffs 25 calculated that potential waiting time penalties were a maximum of $3,137,331, and potential wage 26 statement penalties were a maximum of $1,406,200.<sup>3</sup> Defendant vigorously disputed Plaintiffs'

27
28 <sup>3</sup> While Plaintiffs alleged claims for statutory penalties pursuant to Labor Code Sections 203 and 226, at mediation Plaintiffs recognized that these claims were subject to additional, separate defenses

1 calculations and exposure theories. Decl. Nordrehaug, ¶6.

2 Consequently, the Gross Settlement Amount of $800,000 represents more than 15% of the 3 maximum value of the alleged damages at issue in this case at the time this Settlement was negotiated.<sup>4</sup>

4 The above maximum calculations should then be adjusted in consideration for both the risk of class 5 certification and the risk of establishing class-wide liability on all claims. Given the amount of the 6 settlement as compared to the potential value of claims in this case and the defenses asserted by 7 Defendant, this settlement is fair and reasonable.<sup>5</sup> Clearly, the goal of this litigation has been met.
8 Decl. Nordrehaug, ¶6.

9 Where both sides face significant uncertainty, the attendant risks favor settlement. Hanlon v.
10 Chrysler Corp., 150 F.3d 1011, 1026 (9th Cir. 1998). Here, a number of defenses asserted by 11 Defendant present serious threats to the claims of the Plaintiffs and the other Class Members.
12 Defendant asserted that Defendant's practices complied with all applicable Labor laws. Defendant 13 argued that Class Members were properly paid for all time worked and that all work time was properly 14 recorded. Defendant maintained there was no miscalculation of the regular rate when paying wages 15 to the Plaintiffs and the Class. Defendant contends that its meal and rest period policies fully complied 16 with California law and Defendant did not fail to provide the opportunity for legally required meal and

17 _____
18 asserted by Defendant, including, a good faith dispute defense as to whether any premium wages for 19 meal or rest periods or other wages were owed given Defendant's position that Plaintiffs and Class 20 Members were properly compensated. See Nordstrom Commission Cases, 186 Cal. App. 4th 576, 584
21 (2010) ("There is no willful failure to pay wages if the employer and employee have a good faith 22 dispute as to whether and when the wages were due.").

23 <sup>4</sup> Because the PAGA claim is not a class claim and primarily is paid to the State of California, 24 Plaintiffs have not included the PAGA claim in this discussion of the value of the class claims. The 25 PAGA claim is addressed in the Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶33.

26 <sup>5</sup> See Glass v. UBS Fin. Servs., 2007 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 8476 (N.D. Cal. 2007) (approving a 27 settlement where the settlement amount constituted approximately 25% of the estimated overtime 28 damages for the class); Stovall-Gusman v. W.W. Granger, Inc., 2015 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 78671, at *12 (N.D. Cal. 2015) (granting final approval where "the proposed Total Settlement Amount represents approximately 10% of what class might have been awarded had they succeeded at trial."); Viceral v.
Mistras Grp., Inc., 2016 WL 5907869 (N.D. Cal. 2016) (approving wage and hour class action settlement amounting to 8.1% of full value); Ma v. Covidien Holding, Inc., 2014 WL 2472316, (C.D.
Cal. 2014) (approving wage and hour class action settlement worth "somewhere between 9% and 18%" of maximum valuation).

1 rest breaks. Defendant could argue that its payment of meal period premiums is evidence of its lawful 2 practices. Defendant contend that there was no failure to pay for business expenses and any cell phone 3 usage was merely convenient and voluntary such that reimbursement was not legally required. Finally,
4 Defendant could argue that the Supreme Court decision in Brinker v. Superior Court, 53 Cal. 4th 1004
5 (2012) and the existence of arbitration agreements, weakened Plaintiffs' claims, on liability, class-wide 6 damages, and class certifiability as to the meal and rest period claims. Defendant also argues that based 7 on its facially lawful practices, Defendant acted in good faith and without willfulness, which if accepted
8 would negate the claims for waiting time penalties and/or inaccurate wage statements. If successful, 9 Defendant's defenses could eliminate or substantially reduce any recovery to the Class. While 10 Plaintiffs believe that these defenses could be overcome, Defendant maintains these defenses have merit 11 and therefore present a serious risk to recovery by the Class. Decl. Nordrehaug, ¶ 24.

12       There was also a significant risk that, if the Action was not settled, Plaintiffs would be unable 13 to obtain a certified class and maintain the certified class through trial, and thereby not recover on 14 behalf of any employees other than themselves. At the time of the mediation, Defendant forcefully 15 opposed the propriety of class certification, arguing that individual issues precluded class certification.
16 Defendant contended that the existence of arbitration agreements with class waivers could be a threat 17 to class certification and/or the recovery of class-wide damages. Further, as demonstrated by the 18 California Supreme Court decision in Duran v. U.S. Bank National Assn., 59 Cal. 4th 1 (2014), there 19 are significant hurdles to overcome for a class-wide recovery even where the class has been certified.
20 While other cases have approved class certification in wage and hour claims, class certification in this 21 action was hotly disputed and the maintenance of a certified class through trial was by no means a 22 foregone conclusion. Decl. Nordrehaug, ¶ 25.

23       After arm's length negotiations between experienced and informed counsel, the Parties 24 recognized the potential risks and agreed on the Settlement with a Gross Settlement Amount of 25 $800,000. As the Court held in Glass, where the parties faced uncertainties similar to those here:

26       In light of the above-referenced uncertainty in the law, the risk, expense, complexity, 27 and likely duration of further litigation likewise favors the settlement. Regardless of 28 how this Court might have ruled on the merits of the legal issues, the losing party likely would have appealed, and the parties would have faced the expense and uncertainty of litigating an appeal. 'The expense and possible duration of the litigation should be

1 considered in evaluating the reasonableness of [a] settlement.’”
2 2007 WL 221862, at *4 (quoting In re Mego Financial Corp. Securities Litigation, 213 F.3d 454, 458 3 (9th Cir. 2000)).

4 3. The Settlement Does Not Improperly Grant Preferential Treatment To 5 Class Representatives or Segments Of The Class

6 The relief provided in the Settlement will benefit all members of the Class. The Settlement does 7 not grant preferential treatment to Plaintiffs or segments of the Class in any way. Payments to the Class 8 Members are all determined under a neutral methodology. Each Participating Class Member will 9 receive the same opportunity to participate in and receive payment through a neutral formula that is 10 based upon the Class Workweeks for that individual. Decl. Nordrehaug, ¶4.

11 Plaintiffs will apply to the Court for Class Representative Service Payments in consideration 12 for their service and for the risks undertaken on behalf of the Class. (Agreement at ¶ 3.2(a).) Plaintiffs 13 performed their duties admirably by working with Class Counsel over the course of litigation. The 14 Declaration of the Plaintiffs are submitted herewith in support. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶27. At this stage, 15 the requested service award is within the accepted range of awards for purposes of preliminary 16 approval. See e.g. Andrews v. Plains All Am. Pipeline L.P., 2022 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 172183, at *11
17 (C.D. Cal. 2022) (finding that the requested service awards of $15,000 each are appropriate); Reynolds
18 v. Direct Flow Med., Inc., 2019 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 149865, at *19 (N.D. Cal. 2019) (granting request 19 for $12,500 service award); Mathein v. Pier 1 Imps. (U.S.), Inc., 2018 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 71386 (E.D.
20 Cal. 2018) (awarding $12,500 where average class member payment was $351); Louie v. Kaiser 21 Foundation Health Plan, Inc., 2008 WL 4473183, *7 (S.D. Cal. Oct. 06, 2008) (awarding $25,000 22 service award to each of six plaintiffs in overtime class action); Glass v. UBS Fin. Servs., 2007 WL 23 221862, *16-17 (N.D. Cal. 2007) (awarding $25,000 service award in overtime class action and a pool 24 of $100,000 in enhancements ). As explained in Glass, service awards are routinely awarded to class 25 representatives to compensate the employees for the time and effort expended on the case, for the risk 26 of litigation, for the fear of suing an employer and retaliation there from, and to serve as an incentive 27 to vindicate the statutory rights of all employees. 2007 WL 221862 at *16-17.

1                                   4. The Stage Of The Proceedings Are Sufficiently Advanced To Permit
2                                   Preliminary Approval Of The Settlement

3                                   The stage of the proceedings at which this Settlement was reached also militates in favor of 4 preliminary approval and ultimately, final approval of the Settlement. Class Counsel has conducted 5 a thorough investigation into the facts of the class action. Class Counsel began investigating the Class 6 Members' claims before the Action were filed, and during the course of litigation, Class Counsel and 7 engaged in informal discovery to obtain necessary information. Class Counsel conducted a review and 8 analysis of the relevant documents and data. Class Counsel was also experienced with these claims, 9 as Class Counsel previously litigated and settled similar claims in other actions. Accordingly, the 10 agreement to settle did not occur until Class Counsel possessed sufficient information to make an 11 informed judgment regarding the likelihood of success on the merits and the results that could be 12 obtained through further litigation. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶28.

13                                   Based on the foregoing data and their own independent investigation and evaluation, Class 14 Counsel is of the opinion that the Settlement with Defendant for the consideration and on the terms set
15 forth in the Agreement is fair, reasonable, and adequate and is in the best interest of the Class in light 16 of all known facts and circumstances, including the risk of significant delay, defenses asserted by 17 Defendant, and numerous potential appellate issues. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶29.

18                                   V. THE CLASS IS PROPERLY CERTIFIED FOR SETTLEMENT PURPOSES ONLY

19                                   Plaintiffs contend that the proposed settlement meet all of the requirements for class 20 certification under California Code of Civil Procedure § 382 as demonstrated below, and therefore, the 21 Court may appropriately approve the Class as defined in the Agreement. This Court should 22 conditionally certify the Class for settlement purposes only, defined as follows:

23                                   All individuals who were employed by Defendant in California and classified as a 24 non-exempt employee at any time during the Class Period.

25 (Agreement at ¶ 1.5.)

26 The Class Period is from February 16, 2020 through the date of preliminary approval. (Agreement at 27 ¶ 1.13)

28                                   A. California Code of Civil Procedure § 382

Plaintiffs seek certification of this Class for settlement purposes under California Code of Civil

1 Procedure § 382. The California Supreme Court has summarized the standard for determining whether 2 class certification is appropriate as follows:

3 Code of Civil Procedure Section 382 authorizes class actions “when the question is one 4 of a common or general interest, of many persons, or when the parties are numerous, 5 and it is impracticable to bring them all before the court...” The party seeking 6 certification has the burden to establish the existence of both an ascertainable class and 7 a well-defined community of interest among class members. (citations omitted). The 8 “community of interest” requirement embodies three factors: (1) predominant common 9 questions of law or fact; (2) class representatives with claims or defenses typical of the 10 class; and (3) class representatives who can adequately represent the class.

11 Sav-On Drug Stores, Inc. v. Superior Court, 34 Cal. 4th 319, 326 (2004).

12 While Defendant reserves all rights to dispute that the Plaintiffs can satisfy these requirements, 13 the Parties agree that Defendant will not dispute that these requirements may be satisfied in this case 14 for purposes of settlement only and therefore, the proposed Class should be certified for purposes of 15 settlement only. (Agreement at ¶ 2.9.)

16 B. The Proposed Class Is Ascertainable and Numerous

17 Plaintiffs bring this action on behalf of a Class of non-exempt employees of Defendant during 18 the Class Period. Plaintiffs assert that all of these individuals are ascertainable because the class 19 members can readily be determined through examination of Defendant’s files. Given that the Class 20 consists of 1,669 individuals, Plaintiffs maintain that numerosity is clearly satisfied. See Bowles v.
21 Superior Court, 44 Cal.2d 574 (1955) (class with 10 members sufficiently numerous); Rose v. City of 22 Hayward, 126 Cal.App.3d 926, 934 (1981) (class of 48 members satisfies numerosity requirement.)
23 Here, Plaintiffs assert that the 1,669 current and former employees that comprise the Class can be 24 identified based on Defendant’s records and are sufficiently numerous for class certification. Decl.
25 Nordrehaug at ¶30.

26 C. Common Issues of Law and Fact Predominate

27 Predominance of common issues of law or fact does not require that the common issues be 28 dispositive of the entire controversy or even that they be dispositive of all liability issues. 1 Newberg
2 on Class Actions, Section 4.25 at 4-82, 4-83 (1992). “Predominance is a comparative concept, and ‘the 3 necessity for class members to individually establish eligibility and damages does not mean individual 4 fact questions predominate.’” Sav-On, 34 Cal. 4th at 334.

1 Commonality exists if there is a predominant common legal question regarding how an 2 employer's policies impact its employees. Ghazaryan v. Diva Limousine, Ltd., 169 Cal. App. 4th 1524, 3 1536 (2008) (“[T]he common legal question remains the overall impact of Diva's policies on its 4 drivers.”) Whether the plaintiff is likely to prevail on their theory of recovery is irrelevant at the 5 certification stage since the question is “essentially a procedural one that does not ask whether an action 6 is legally or factually meritorious.” Linder v. Thrifty Oil Co., 23 Cal. 4th 429, 439-440 (2003).

7 Here, Plaintiffs contend that common questions of law and fact are present, specifically the 8 common questions of whether Defendant's employment practices were lawful, whether Defendant 9 failed to provide meal and rest periods to Class Members, whether Class members were lawfully 10 compensated for all hours worked, whether Defendant miscalculated the regular rate when paying Class 11 Member overtime, meal period premiums and/or sick pay, whether Defendant failed to provide required 12 expense reimbursement, and whether Class Members are entitled to damages and penalties as a result 13 of these practices. Plaintiffs contend that certification of this Class is appropriate because Defendant 14 allegedly engaged in uniform practices with respect to the Class Members. As a result, these common 15 questions of liability could be answered on a class wide basis. Decl. Nordrehaug, ¶30. Defendant 16 disputes that common questions predominate but will not oppose such a finding for purposes of this 17 Settlement only.

18 D. The Claims of the Plaintiffs Are Typical of the Class Claims

19 The typicality requirement requires the Plaintiffs to demonstrate that the members of the class 20 have the same or similar claims as the Plaintiffs. “The typicality requirement is met when the claims 21 of the [p]laintiff arise from the same event or are based on the same legal theories.” Tate v.
22 Weyerhaeuser Co., 723 F.2d 598, 608 (8th Cir. 1983). In Hanlon, supra, 150 F.3d at 1020, the Ninth 23 Circuit held that “[u]nder the rule's permissive standards, representative claims are ‘typical’ if they are 24 reasonably coextensive with those of absent class members; they need not be substantially identical.”

25 In this Action, Plaintiffs contend that the typicality requirement is fully satisfied. Plaintiffs, like 26 every other member of the Class, were employed by Defendant as non-exempt employees, and, like 27 every other member of the Class, were subject to the same employment practices. Plaintiffs, like every 28 other member of the Class, also claim owed compensation as a result of the Defendant's uniform

1 company policies and practices. Thus, the claims of Plaintiffs and the members of the Class arise from 2 the same course of conduct by Defendant, involve the same issues, and are based on the same legal 3 theories. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶30. For purposes of settlement, Plaintiffs assert that the typicality 4 requirement is met as to the common issues presented in this case. Defendant does not oppose a finding 5 of typicality for purposes of this Settlement only.

6 E. The Class Representation Fairly and Adequately Protected the Class

7 Plaintiffs contends that the Class Members are adequately represented here because Plaintiffs 8 and representing counsel (a) do not have any conflicts of interest with other class members, and (b) will 9 prosecute the case vigorously on behalf of the class. Hanlon, 150 F.3d at 1020. This requirement is 10 met here. First, Plaintiffs are well aware of their duties as the representatives of the Class and have 11 actively participated in the prosecution of this case to date. Plaintiffs effectively communicated with 12 Class Counsel, provided documents and information to Class Counsel, and participated in the 13 investigation and resolution of the Action. The personal involvement of the Plaintiffs was essential to 14 the prosecution of the Action and the monetary settlement reached. Second, Plaintiffs retained 15 competent counsel who are experienced in employment class actions and who have no conflicts. Decl.
16 Nordrehaug at ¶ 31. Third, there is no antagonism between the interests of the Plaintiffs and those of 17 the Class. Both the Plaintiffs and the Class Members seek monetary relief under the same set of facts 18 and legal theories. Under such circumstances, adequacy of representation is satisfied. Reaves v.
19 Ketoro, Inc., 2020 U.S. Dist. Lexis 167926, *23 (C.D. Cal. 2020). Defendant disputes that the 20 adequacy requirement is satisfied but will not oppose such a finding for purposes of this Settlement 21 only.

22 F. The Superiority Requirement Is Met

23 As to the superiority requirement, Courts explain that “[w]here classwide litigation of common 24 issues will reduce litigation costs and promote greater efficiency, a class action may be superior to other 25 methods of litigation.” Valentino v. Carter-Wallace, Inc., 97 F.3d 1227, 1234 (9th Cir. 1996). As 26 courts have previously observed:

27 Absent class treatment, each individual plaintiff would present in separate, duplicative 28 proceedings the same or essentially the same arguments and evidence, including expert testimony. The result would be a multiplicity of trials conducted at enormous expense

1 to both the judicial system and the litigants. “It would be neither efficient nor fair to 2 anyone, including defendants, to force multiple trials to hear the same evidence and decide the same issues.”

3 Sav-On, 34 Cal. 4th at 340, citing Boggs v. Divested Atomic Corp., 141 F.R.D. 58, 67 (S.D. Ohio 1991).

4 Here, Plaintiffs contend that a class action is the superior mechanism for resolution of the claims
5 as pled by the Plaintiffs. While Defendant disputes that class treatment is superior, Defendant does not 6 dispute a finding of superiority in this action for purposes of this Settlement only.

7 VI. THE PROPOSED METHOD OF CLASS NOTICE IS APPROPRIATE

8 The Court has broad discretion in approving a practical notice program. 7-Eleven Owners for 9 Fair Franchising v. Southland Corp., 85 Cal. App. 4th 1135, 1164 (2000). The Parties have agreed 10 upon procedures by which the Class Members will be provided with written notice of the Settlement
11 similar to that approved and utilized in hundreds of class action settlements and the Class Notice 12 includes all relevant information and a Spanish translation. (See Exhibit “A” to the Agreement.) Decl.
13 Nordrehaug at ¶32. The Class Notice will explain that the Class Members shall have forty-five (45)
14 days from the date that the Class Notice is mailed to them (the “Response Deadline”) to request 15 exclusion (opt-out) or to submit a written objection. (Agreement at ¶¶ 1.45, 8.5, 8.7.) Class Members 16 shall be given the opportunity to object to the Settlement and the request for attorneys’ fees and 17 expenses, and to appear at the Final Approval Hearing. (Agreement at ¶ 8.7.) This notice program was 18 designed to meaningfully reach the Class Members and it advises them of all pertinent information 19 concerning the Settlement. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶32. The distribution of the Class Notice satisfies the 20 requirements of due process and is the best notice practicable under the circumstances and complies 21 with Rules of Court 3.766 and 3.769(f).

22 VII. CONCLUSION

23 Plaintiffs respectfully request that the Court preliminarily approve the proposed settlement and 24 sign the proposed Preliminary Approval Order, which is submitted herewith, and schedule the final 25 approval hearing for the proposed date of October 1, 2024.
